INTERIM SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS
DAVE LANGONE

April 9, 2021

Dear New Hartford School Community:

As the spring break comes to an end, I would like to thank the New Hartford Central School District for welcoming me as the Interim Superintendent of Schools while the District conducts a search for your next School District Leader. During the next few months, New Hartford will be continuing to keep student and staff safety at the forefront as we adjust to changes and recommendations from our elected officials and health organizations. The pandemic has proven to be a crippling and very stubborn adversary for society. However, the progress that has been made in recent months appears to have generated a renewed hope.

The Centers for Disease Control has continued to adjust their recommendations and the District is awaiting an update from New York State regarding guidance. We look forward to beginning a more normal spring for our students as the District completes the process of reopening full-time, on-site instruction at all levels.

I look forward to the opportunity to support your children and you as the Interim Superintendent of the New Hartford Central School District.

Sincerely,

Dave Langone
Interim Superintendent of Schools
