

New Hartford Central School District

To the New Hartford Central School District Community,

It is with great excitement that I look forward to joining the New Hartford Central School District community on October 6, 2021. I would like to take this opportunity to officially introduce myself to you as your soon-to-be new Superintendent of Schools.

I am humbled to join the New Hartford Central School District - one that is known for having such a caring, passionate school community and has a reputation for academic excellence and student-focused education.

Since 2015 I have served as the Superintendent of the Niskayuna Central School District. Prior to that I was the Deputy Commissioner for P-12 Education for the New York State Education Department. Previously, I was employed as the superintendent of schools for the Central Valley Central School District, Ilion Central School District, Trumansburg Central School District and Oppenheim-Ephratah Central School District, administrator and special education teacher in the Little Falls City School District, and a special education teacher at the Herkimer-Fulton-Hamilton-Otsego BOCES.

On Tuesday, July 20, from 6:00-8:00 p.m. at the New Hartford High School, I hope to meet many of you at what will be the first of several Meet and Greet opportunities. I am excited to meet you, partner with you and hear your ideas as we look to the future of this outstanding school district.

It is an exciting time for the New Hartford Central School District and I look forward to the school year ahead. I hope you all have a happy, healthy summer and I hope to meet you soon.

Sincerely,
Cosimo Tangorra, Jr., Ed.D.
