The boys varsity football team finished the season state ranked and with a 10-1 record. Building on the Spartan tradition of excellence, and through the leadership of the 18 graduating seniors, the team earned the Class B East Division championship title. The season included many exciting victories utilizing a high-scoring offense and a tenacious defense. The Spartans' efforts allowed them to outscore their opponents 458-125.

The team advanced to the sectional championship at the JMA Wireless Dome in Syracuse where unfortunately, the team fell 28-27 in the final minute. Despite the heartbreaking ending, the Spartans carried themselves with class and sportsmanship.

The coaches and team would like to thank their families, school and community for their unwavering support throughout a memorable season.

The girls varsity soccer team concluded the season with their sixth consecutive TVL championship title and third consecutive sectional and regional championship titles. After advancing to the state final four, the Spartans finished the season with a record of 19-1-1.

This season marked the fourth consecutive year that the team went undefeated during the regular season, scoring a total of 83 goals and conceding only 16. Under the leadership of senior captains Kate Noonan, Kacey Richards and Grace Serafin, the Spartans managed to shut-out their opponents 10 times.

Seniors who also contributed to the team's accomplishments included Lindsay Ellis, Lia Fornino, Bella Hayes, Abby O'Connor, Elise Pauley and Emma Wameling.

The Spartans are thankful to those who made the season possible, including Athletic Director John Banek, athletic trainer Spencer Strife, the district, team parents, New Hartford Soccer Boosters, and all members of the community who came out to support the team.
